VOL. V. NO. 4.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

BROOKLYN HANDICAP ENTRIES.

"Best entry you ever saw," is what Secretary McIntyre telegraphed last night about the Brooklyn Jockey Club stakes that closed Monday. In view of the splendid array of good horses published here as entries to the Brooklyn Handicap, he may well afford to feel jubilant. Fifty-one are here named as against forty-three at a similar date of the closing of entries last year. Several entries drifted in then after the first publication of entries as will no doubt be the case this year, but substantially the list is complete and a glance will show that it comprehends nearly all of the high-class handicap material of the year. It is noticeable that such very fast mares as Briar Sweet, Imp, Napamax, Azucena, Lambent, and Miss Marion are among the entries. In view of the detraction to which the sex has been subject for a year or so it would be a touch of horse justice if one of this swift sex-tette should carry off the glory and honor of the race, a difficult thing, however, for a mare at such an early date as that annually set for the decision of the Brooklyn. It is evident from the presence of Jean Beraud, Ahom, Autuma, Filigrane, Hungarian, Diminutive, Greatland, Kingdon, Mr. Clay, King Barleycorn, Marblehead, Miss Marion and Ordnung that owners have not overlooked the conceded fact that conditions are such that three-year-olds will have unusual opportunities in the big handicaps this year. The entries are as follows:

THE TAMPA MEETING.

New Orleans will have a rival in the winter racing game, although for the present it does not promise to be a formidable one. All arrangements have been completed for a winter meeting at Tampa, Fla., and the first race will be run January 14 over the track, which is a half-mile affair. Yesterday George I. Palmer, of Tampa, arrived in the city and paid a visit to John Dillon, assistant secretary of the Turf Congress. Mr. Palmer's visit was for the purpose of assuring Mr. Dillon that no outlawed horses or horsemen would be permitted to race over the Tampa track, and to obtain a list, as far as possible, of all outlaws. Mr. Palmer also told Mr. Dillon that the track would be conducted strictly under Turf Congress rules. While Mr. Dillon was not enabled to give the sanction of the Turf Congress to the meeting, he told Mr. Palmer that horses that raced there and the officials of the track would not be outlaws, as Tampa is south of the line prohibiting winter racing and at liberty to give a meeting just the same as New Orleans. While the track is a half-mile affair, it does not outlaw its owners, simply being a bar to membership in the Turf Congress. Mr. Palmer was very enthusiastic over the Tampa track, which is owned and backed by H. B. Plant, the millionaire railroad magnate. In speaking of the coming meeting, Mr. Palmer said:

"The mid-winter meeting of the Tampa Fair and Racing Association will begin January 14 and will run to February 14. Purse will range from $75 to $125, with four races every other day. H. B. Plant is president of the association, F. De C Sullivan secretary, and myself manager. Thomas Flynn will do the starting. The track is a half-mile affair and is situated on the grounds of the Tampa Bay Hotel, and is within fifteen minutes' walk of Tampa, a city of 25,000 people. Five books will be in the betting ring, in charge of Charles Meddinger of Baltimore. We expect to have about 200 horses at the track, New Orleans and North and South Carolina owners having signified their intention of shipping to Tampa. The sport will provide considerable amusement for the large number of winter tourists in and around Tampa, and we believe the first meeting will be a tremendous success. There is ample ground in the neighborhood of Tampa for a mile track, and if the venture turns out as is expected, a mile track, with all the modern track improvements, will be built next year."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Col. Saunders D. Bruce, founder of the well known weekly turf newspaper Turf, Field and Farm, feeling the pressure of advancing years has severed his connection with the publication with which he has been so usefully and honorably connected for nearly thirty-four years, having sold his one-third interest to H. W. Brown. The new partner will assume charge of the business department.

George Miller, the very speedy old Loftin horse in W. L. Stanfield's stable, has been put to work hauling a cart around the Ingleside track. This is his trainer's method of hardening the fleet galloper's legs, and it is said to work charmingly.—San Francisco Examiner.

Starter James F. Caldwell has finally succeeded in locating his trunk in the Baldwin Hotel ruins. The contents are considerably charred, but Mr. Caldwell is having the debris carefully sifted in the hope of discovering some of his lost diamonds.

Mr. C. H. Pettingill is spending a few days in New Orleans from whence he will go to San Francisco to look over the racing situation.

Time, 25, 51, 1:04.

Winner—B. g. by Duodec—Our Pet. Start fair. Won driving. Goal Runner was lucky and well handled and barely lasted long enough to head out the fast gaining Campus. The latter was best and would have won in another stride or two. Both are at home in mud. Whaleback ran an honest race and is a mud lark. Royal Fan dislikes heavy going. Wheat King may do better, but is not of much account. The others are bad horses.

Overweights—La Parasseuse, 2 pounds; Fortis, 3. Goal Runner, place, 1 to 4. Campus, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Whaleback, show, 2 to 1.

10215 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:17, 1:44.

Winner—Gr. g. by Martenhurst—Helen Scratch. Start good. Won in a gallop. Greyhurst outclassed the field in such going and always had the race at his mercy. Rose Maid likes the mud and ran a good consistent race. Lady Britannic likes a shorter route. She is good in mud and ran as if not fully keyed up. Durwad ran his race. Schnitz is in bad form.

Overweights—Schnitz, 2 pounds. Rose Maid, place, 2 to 1; show, 3 to 5. Lady Britannic, show, 1 to 3.

10216 THIRD RACE—3-8 Mile. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 12, 24, 37.

Winner—Ch. c. by Watercross—Paloma. Start fair. Won in a gallop. Yellow Tail is a very promising youngster and evidently outclassed the others. Loch Katrine ran very fast through the stretch and made up a lot of ground under indifferent handling. Innovator ran well but will do best over a fast track. The Buffoon is hardly ready, but shows improvement. Nina could not negotiate the sticky holding track and tired badly in the stretch. Lomond's race should not be considered. It was a work-out under his stable companion's protection. Ice Drop ran well enough to suggest watching.

Loch Katrine, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Innovator, show, 4 to 5.

10217 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $350. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time. 25. 50. 1:03.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03.

Winner—B. f. by Balgowan—Parolee. Start fair. Won in a gallop. Genua was much the best in the going, which evidently suited her notions admirably. Banewor ran to her best mark and was lucky and well handled. The Fretter was really second best, and only lost the place through awkward work in the saddle. Anne Page is not at home in such going. She is good and will do on a fast track in ordinary company. Jennie Reid is best over a longer route and was short. The same applies to Doremus, who, besides, was off badly.

Banewor, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. The Fretter, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Ch. h. by Mariner—Queen Emma.

Start bad. Won in a gallop. Mainstay beat the gate and made a runaway race of it. He was probably bet anyhow. Fig Leaf held a good position throughout, and under strong riding, wore Sweet William down in the last fifty yards. The latter got off badly and was hurried too much. Barney Schreiber is good in mud and ran a fairly good race. Jim Bozeman was hurt. He is a fast sprinter when fit. The chances of the others were extinguished by the send-off.

Overweights—Mainstay, 2 pounds; Sweet William, 1; Jim Bozeman, 3.
Mainstay, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Fig Leaf, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sweet William, show, 1 to 2.
